General Rules and Guidelines for All 4-H Exhibitors

Rules in this 4-H exhibit list apply to the 4-H events at the North Dakota State Fair. These rules supersede other rules that may be printed in project manuals or are otherwise assumed. Show management has the right to make decisions regarding the operation of a show as needed.

1. 4-H activities will comply with rules of the State Fair.
2. 4-H classes are open to youth enrolled in 4-H programs in North Dakota. Eligible youth must have completed the third grade or are age 8 to 18 before Sept. 1, 2010. Cloverbud participants are not eligible for State Fair 4-H entries.
3. Exhibits must be the work of the 4-H member in the project during the current 4-H club year unless local achievement days are after the State Fair.

4. Static exhibits qualify to be entered at the State Fair by placing in the blue ribbon or other comparable group conducted under the supervision of the NDSU Extension Service. All exhibits must be entered with the approval of your county office of the NDSU Extension Service.

6. Exhibits may be entered only once in a youth division.
7. Static exhibits must have a properly completed North Dakota State Fair 4-H exhibit label.
8. 4-H exhibits will be accepted according to the times listed in the 4-H schedule. Mailed/shipped exhibits should be sent early so they arrive at the State Fair by the entry times for the exhibits. Mailed exhibits must have carrying charges prepaid. Address all exhibits to the 4-H Department, North Dakota State Fair, 2005 Burdick Expressway E., Minot, ND 58701.
Counties must designate, in writing, instructions for return shipping for all mailed exhibits. If these procedures are not followed, return shipping may be delayed and may cost more. If county achievement days closely follow the State Fair, please indicate the date needed for return.
9. Static exhibits will be released after 6 p.m. Saturday, July 30. However, exhibitors are encouraged to wait until after the fair is over. The fair charges admission fees to everyone and allows only vehicles with credentials to have access to the grounds until Sunday, July 31. Exhibitors not following the dress code shall receive reduced premiums equivalent to one ribbon placing.

15. Open-class shows: 4-H members are encouraged to compete in the State Fair’s open-class competitions. Livestock projects may be shown in both open and 4-H shows. Static exhibits must have separate items displayed in each division. 4-H members who plan to exhibit in the open-class shows at the North Dakota State Fair must make entry on the official entry blanks and pay entry fees.
16. All exhibitors and a parent/guardian are expected to read the following code of ethics and sign a statement on the entry forms indicating consent to the statements in the code.

International Association of Fairs and Expositions (IAFE) National Code of Show Ring Ethics

Exhibitors of animals at livestock shows shall at all times deport themselves with honesty and good sportsmanship. Their conduct in this competitive environment shall always reflect the highest standards of honor and dignity to promote the advancement of agricultural education. This code applies to junior as well as open-class exhibitors who compete in structured classes of competition. This code applies to all livestock offered in any event at a livestock show. In addition to the “IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics,” fairs and livestock shows may have rules and regulations which they impose on the local, county, state, provincial and national levels.

All youth leaders working with junior exhibitors are under an affirmative responsibility to do more than avoid improper conduct or questionable acts. Their moral values must be so certain and positive that those younger and more pliable will be influenced by their fine example. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers and absolutely responsible persons who violate the code of ethics will forfeit premiums, awards and auction proceeds and shall be prohibited from future exhibition in accordance with the rules adopted by the respective fairs and livestock show. Exhibitors who violate this code of ethics demean the integrity of all livestock exhibitors and should be prohibited from competition at all livestock shows in the United States and Canada.

The following is a list of guidelines for all exhibitors and livestock in competitive events:

1. All exhibitors must present, upon request of fair and livestock show officials, proof of ownership, length of ownership and age of all animals entered. Misrepresentation of ownership, age or any facts relating thereto is prohibited.
2. Owners, exhibitors, fitters, trainers or absolutely responsible persons shall provide animal health certificates from licensed veterinarians upon request by fair or livestock show officials.
3. Junior exhibitors are expected to care for and groom their animals while at fairs or livestock shows.

4. Animals shall be presented to show events where they will enter the food chain free of violative drug residues. The act of entering an animal in a livestock show is the giving of consent by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer and/or absolutely responsible person for the show management to obtain any specimens of urine, saliva, blood or other substance from the animal to be used in testing. Animals not entered in an event that culminates with the animal entering the food chain shall not be administered drugs other than in accordance with applicable federal, state and provincial statutes, regulations and rules. Livestock shall not be exhibited if the drugs administered in accordance with federal, state and provincial statutes, regulations and rules affect the animals’ performance or appearance at the event.

If the laboratory report on the analysis of saliva, urine, blood or other sample taken from livestock indicates the presence of forbidden drugs or medication, this shall be prima facie evidence such substance has been administered to the animal either internally or externally. It is presumed that the sample of urine, saliva, blood or other substance tested by the laboratory to which it was sent is the one taken from the animal in question, its integrity is preserved and all procedures of said collection and preservation, transfer to the laboratory and analysis of the sample are correct and accurate and the report received from the laboratory pertains to the sample taken from the animal in question and correctly reflects the condition of the animal at the time the sample was taken, with the burden on the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer or absolutely responsible person to prove.

At any time after an animal arrives on the fair or livestock premises, all treatments involving the use of drugs and/or medication shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian.

5. Any surgical procedure or injection of any foreign substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counterirritant or similar substance) which could affect the animal’s performance or alter its natural contour, confirmation or appearance, except for surgical procedures performed by a duly licensed veterinarian for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal, is prohibited.
6. The use of showing and/or handling practices or devices, such as striking animals to cause swelling, and using electrical contrivance or other similar practices are not acceptable and are prohibited.
7. Direct criticism or interference with the judge, fair or livestock show management, other exhibitors, breed representative or show officials before, during or after the competitive event is prohibited. In the furtherance of their official duty, all judges, fair and livestock show management or other show officials shall be treated with courtesy, cooperation and respect and no person shall direct abusive or threatening conduct toward them.
8. No owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer or absolutely responsible person shall conspire with another person or persons to intentionally violate this code of ethics or knowingly contribute or cooperate with another person or persons either by affirmative action or inaction to violate this code of ethics. Violation of this rule shall subject such individual to disciplinary action.

9. The application of this code of ethics provides for absolute responsibility for an animal's condition by an owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer or participant whether or not he or she was actually instrumental in or had actual knowledge of the treatment of the animal in contravention of this code of ethics.
10. The act of entering an animal is the giving of consent by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer or absolutely responsible person to have any disciplinary action taken by the fair or livestock show published in any publication of the International Association of Fairs and Expositions, including Fairs and Expositions and any special notices to members.
11. The act of entering an animal in a fair or livestock show is the giving of verification by the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer or absolutely responsible person that he or she has read the IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics and understands the consequences of and penalties provided for actions prohibited by the code. It is further a consent that any action which contravenes these rules and is also in violation of federal, state, or provincial statutes, regulations or rules may be released to appropriate law enforcement authorities with jurisdiction over such infractions.
5. Bring birth dates of livestock exhibits and health certificates as required for all animals. For registered animals, also bring registration papers. Registered animals without registration papers will be shown as grade animals.
6. Upon arrival at the fair, bring your entry form and other required papers to the show superintendent to enter and get stall or pen assignments. Livestock exhibited in the 4-H division must be housed in the facilities provided for 4-H livestock exhibits unless permission is granted by the division superintendent prior to entering. Plan to attend the information session for 4-H and FFA livestock shows.
7. Be ready to weigh in market beef, sheep, swine or goats at the time designated.
8. Show order will be scheduled by the show superintendent. Animals must be shown by the exhibitor unless permission is granted by the division superintendent prior to the show. Substitute show people must follow dress code.
9. Registered animals must be registered in the exhibitor's name or in joint ownership with the respective breed association. The exhibitor's name or family name must appear on the registration papers for solely owned or jointly owned animals.

Additional Rules and Guidelines for Livestock Exhibitors

No fans or fan stands, of any type, will be allowed in the barn aisles.

1. Read all general rules and guidelines for 4-H exhibitors and the International Association of Fairs and Expositions (IAFE) National Code of Show Ring Ethics. You, the exhibitor, are responsible for following the guidelines stated in these guidelines and code.
2. All animal owners are responsible for the welfare of their animals. Exhibitors are expected to provide adequate feed, water, bedding and housing for the comfort of their animals. The exhibitor is responsible for making arrangements for appropriate care if he or she is unable to be present.

The humane treatment of animals is expected and abuse will not be tolerated. The comfort and safety of the animal must be addressed throughout the fair. Nonstressed animals will perform better for the handler. Exhibitors are expected to handle their animals in a gentle and calm manner and not create undue excitement in the vicinity of other livestock or people.
3. Livestock exhibitors must reserve stalls, pens or cages for 4-H livestock online at www.ndstatefair.com or with the entry form designed for 4-H, FFA and open classes sent to the State Fair Office by July 12. Late entries have no stall or pen guarantees. (You should keep a photocopy of the completed form you send to the State Fair Office.)
4. The entry form requires a signature from your county Extension agent. You and your parent or guardian must sign the form that certifies you have read and understand the IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics.
10. Animals must be owned and managed by the 4-H member who enters the animal. Animals exhibited must meet rules regarding the length of ownership.
 - a. Market beef animals must be owned, with daily management, by the exhibitor by March 1 of the current year.
 - b. Beef breeding animals, dairy, swine, sheep and goat exhibits must be owned, with daily management, by May 1 of the current year. Any animal born after May 1 must be progeny animals owned from date of their birth by the exhibitor.

An ownership date is not established for poultry and rabbits; however, the exhibitor must have the animals in their possession a minimum of 30 days before their county show or the State Fair show, whichever is held first. A May 1 guideline is suggested for all rabbits and poultry, except for those that would not be of appropriate age at that time.
11. The same animal of any livestock species may be exhibited in one 4-H or FFA show only, regardless of joint ownership by both 4-H and FFA members.
12. Health requirements for livestock: North Dakota Livestock: Animals should be inspected by the State Fair's veterinarian prior to unloading. Animals showing evidence of infectious skin/eye/foot lesions will be dismissed from the fair immediately. Decisions made by the Fair Veterinarian are final. Certificates are not required for North Dakota livestock; however, sheep are required to have the scrapie identification tag. Please note health statements under each specific class. (For complete health requirements and special health requirements for out-of-state livestock, see the open class guidelines.)

13. Drug screen policy to be enforced at the fair: Grand and reserve champion market beef, swine and lambs may be subjected to a drug screen immediately following completion of judging. This drug screen may include tests for detection of the following:
- steroids
 - tranquilizers
 - antibiotics
 - diuretics
 - sulfas

If for some reason an exhibitor has an animal that has been administered antibiotics within 45 days of the show, the exhibitor must present a veterinarian's signed statement to the show superintendent prior to the judging of the class. This statement must include:

- reason for treatment
- antibiotics used plus dosage and frequency
- date of last treatment

Each exhibitor and a parent/guardian must read, sign and submit a copy of the North Dakota State Fair 4-H Livestock Drug Withdrawal Form on the entry forms.

14. Exhibitors furnish all feed and bedding. Hay and straw may be purchased on the grounds. Beef exhibitors must use sand bedding. No straw will be permitted in beef areas.

15. Fitting and showmanship contest:

- Showmanship competition will be part of the shows.
- All exhibitors may enter showmanship competition. Exhibitors must show their own animals in showmanship lots and the animal also must be shown in another lot in the class.
- Showmanship contestants will be divided by age as senior, intermediate and junior lots.
- A round-robin showmanship contest will be held for each age division as noted in the schedule.

Two participants will be selected for the round robin contest from each of these shows: beef, dairy, goat, sheep and swine.

16. Release of livestock: Upon check-in, every livestock exhibitor will be given a release card that clearly states his or her release time. This is based on the distance he or she lives from Minot.

Open-class sheep and beef entered on Friday and not showing in 4-H or FFA – release 6 p.m. Monday.

Open class sheep and beef showing in 4-H or FFA – release time 6 p.m. the day of their last show.

Open class swine, dairy goat and dairy cattle showing in 4-H or FFA – release Saturday on the following schedule:

Class 14: Project: Horsemanship

These rules apply to the 4-H horse show at the North Dakota State Fair and are in addition to the general rules for 4-H exhibitors and the International Association of Fairs and Expositions (IAFE) National Code of Show Ring Ethics. Rules in this exhibit list supersede other rules that may be printed in project manuals or are otherwise assumed.

1. Horse stall reservations/pre-entry forms must be sent to the State Fair Office by July 12. Exhibitors are expected to clean their own stalls and area prior to leaving the grounds. A 4-H member is limited to two animals (horses or mules) for the state 4-H horse show. If your county show is after this date, preregister for the event you anticipate qualifying for. Present an updated form at the State Fair registration.
2. Exhibitors must enter lots based on age before Sept. 1, 2010. Entry forms are available on the Center for 4-H Youth Development website.
3. Exhibitors may enter each lot appropriate for their age if they received a blue ribbon in this event in a county 4-H show since the previous State Fair and it is with the same horse.
4. If a change in horse entries occurs due to an injury or illness, a written letter from the attending veterinarian must be sent to: 4-H Horse Show, North Dakota State Fair, P.O. Box 1796, Minot, ND 58702. Substitutions will not be allowed without previous notice.
5. No stalls will be available for the open show. 4-H horses are to be stalled between noon and 6 p.m. on Sunday, July 24, or by 8 a.m. on Monday, July 25. Stalls are being used by exhibitors in other horse shows and will not be available until Sunday afternoon. Horses with stalls must remain on the fairgrounds until your classes finish on Tuesday, July 26, or Wednesday, July 27.
6. Stalls and exhibit areas must be kept neat and clean at all times. Exhibitors are encouraged to decorate their stalls.
7. No riding in the barns is allowed! This is a safety issue. Premiums may be withheld and expulsion from the fairgrounds may result from violation of this rule.
8. All exhibitors are required to purchase a trailer pass in advance. The pass must remain on the trailer while it is parked on the state fairgrounds. Parking passes for horse show exhibitors will be given only for days the exhibitor is entered in a horse show. Camping passes also are to be prepurchased because limited camping facilities are available on the grounds.
9. The rules and guidelines in GBH-092, "N.D. Horse Show Rules" (dated October 2010), will apply. Show management reserves the right to interpret the rules as necessary for issues not clearly defined.
10. Dress code: All exhibitors will be neatly dressed and must wear a long-sleeved, solid white shirt with a 4-H emblem on the front. In addition, exhibitors must wear ASTM-SEI approved harness helmets for all mounted events

(Western hats are permitted for showmanship), Western boots, blue or black jeans (dark colored) and a belt. Gloves are permitted only in English events.

11. Exhibitor number(s) must be visible clearly on the center of the back, pinned top and bottom, and should remain in the format distributed.
12. Horses may be warmed up and exercised in the specified outdoor warm-up area or the indoor arena only. Riding or exercising in the cattle tie-out area is not permitted.
13. All entrants must be ready at the time they are called. Equipment failures or horse injuries will forfeit the entry.
14. If a horse becomes unruly in the arena or on the premises, the horse and exhibitor shall be dismissed from the ring or premises.
15. Unsportsmanlike conduct or abusive language or actions on the part of any 4-H exhibitor, parent, family member or leader may result in penalization determined by the 4-H horse show committee.
16. No person other than the exhibitors and show officials will be allowed in the ring while the show is in progress.
17. Any exhibitor wishing to discuss any matter with the judge first must contact the ring steward (after completion of the class), who then will arrange such an appointment if the judge approves. The judge's decision in all classes shall be final.
18. The Amanda Ebensteiner Memorial Award is presented annually to the champion 4-H Western horsemanship winner in the 12- to 14-year-old division at the North Dakota State Fair. In 1987, Amanda Ebensteiner became a member of the Ramsey Riders 4-H club in Devils Lake, and during the next 10 years, she participated in nearly two dozen 4-H project areas. But to anyone who knew her, there was no doubt that Amanda's first love was horses. Amanda's quiet, mild manner gave way to a determined and focused competitor in the show ring. Her performance was evidence of her hard work and dedication. Amanda lost her long battle with cancer on July 6, 1997, but her strength and determination should continue to be an inspiration to us all.
19. 4-H horse show schedule is combined with the 4-H schedule at the beginning of this exhibit list. The starting time is listed for the first event of the day. Other classes will follow in sequence as much as possible. Exhibitors should be ready in the event that schedule changes are necessary. Show management has the right to make schedule adjustments if needed to meet time requirements.
